Althoff Hotels undergoes management restructuring

Frank Marrenbach appointed new Managing Partner of Althoff Hotels +++ Majority shareholder Thomas H. Althoff assumes position of Chairman of the Board

COLOGNE, February 27, 2020 (w&p) – Frank Marrenbach has been appointed Managing Partner of Althoff Hotels, with effect from May 1, 2020. Founder and owner of the company group, Thomas H. Althoff, remains majority shareholder and is also taking over the position of Chairman of the Board, thus assuming greater responsibility for strategy and development.

Frank Marrenbach was most recently affiliated with the Oetker Collection, where he worked as General Manager of the Brenners Park-Hotel & Spa in Baden-Baden for around 20 years. In 2008, he became CEO of the entire group. At Althoff Hotels, the 53-year-old Managing Partner is now taking over the operative management of the group's hotel facilities. These include the Althoff COLLECTION, AMERON Hotels, and URBAN LOFT brands.

“As our company is constantly looking to develop and grow, we have decided to restructure our management,” explains Thomas H. Althoff. “Frank Marrenbach is one of the most renowned hoteliers in Europe, and we are proud to be teaming up with him to drive our plans forward.”

Frank Marrenbach says: “After more than 20 years of experience in family-run companies, it feels like the logical next step for me to enter into entrepreneurship myself. I have long been impressed by the values of this group and the quality of its products, and feel honored to be joining Thomas H. Althoff and the entire team in further strengthening Althoff Hotels and ensuring a successful future. I am especially looking forward to meeting the many excellent employees.”
